DISCLOSURE

The Catholic Development Fund, Diocese of Bathurst (CDF) is not prudentially supervised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority nor has it been examined or approved by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission. Therefore, an investor in the CDF will not receive the benefit of the financial claims scheme or the depositor protection provisions in the Banking Act 1959 (Cth), which means there is no guarantee at law that you will get your money back. Investments in the CDF are intended to be a means for investors to support the charitable, religious and educational works of the Catholic Diocese of Bathurst and for whom the consideration of profit are not of primary relevance in the investment decision.

Furthermore, investors should be aware that neither the CDF nor the Trustees of the Roman Catholic Church for the Diocese of Bathurst is subject to the normal requirements to have a disclosure statement or Product Disclosure Statement or be registered under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth). Although there is no guarantee at law, CDPF Limited, a company established by the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference, has indemnified the Fund against any liability arising out of a claim by investors in the Fund - this means they will return your money if the Fund cannot.
