Scouting Ireland – ID Verification Form

This form must be completed by the Scouter approving the Scouting Ireland Adult Membership Application (Group Leader, County Commissioner, Provincial Commissioner, National Team Leader).

Applicants for Vetting by the National Vetting Bureau must have their identity verified by the person approving their membership application. This is done by examining documents from the Identification Checklist. Each document carries a score and enough documentation must be produced to achieve a total score of 100.

Only the signed ID verification form needs to be returned to National Office. Copies of ID DO NOT NEED TO BE RETURNED to National Office.

Example: Application shows the following ID:

Example A – This is correct as the ID items total value exceeds 100 score.

Type of ID	Score:
Passport	80
College ID	25
Total Score:	105

Example B – This fails as the ID items total value is only 60 and does not exceed the required value score.

Type of ID	Score:
ID card Issued by employer (with Name & Address)	35
College ID	25
Total Score:	60

Applicant's details as they appear on the ID documentation provided:
