

The A-200 Pipe Crawler is the industry's leading portable, battery-operated system that makes sewer pipe inspections simple. Perfect for pipes 8" and larger, this crawler traverses rugged terrains with ease while capturing vital environmental data. Take your Stetco unit to the next level with the ability to extract videos, map data, and create comprehensive reports.

(Available in two packages: A-200S and A-200X)

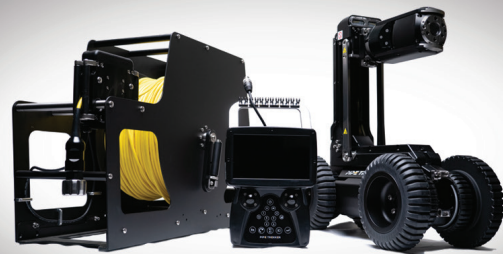

A-200S PACKAGE SPECS:

- Centers in 8"–38" pipes
- Up to 8 hours of battery life
- 7" LCD handheld controller
- 200 m tether length with a manual reel
- Included software and PACP integratable
- 1080 full HD pan/tilt camera
- Artificial intelligence compatible
- Map and model generation
- Robotic elevating arm
- 512 mHz sonde
- Rubber wheel kits

A-200X PACKAGE UPGRADES:

- 310 m tether length with a powered reel
- 10" rugged tablet
- 8" and 10" carbide wheel kits

A-200S

A-200X

STETCO

ABOUT STETCO

Stetco is the industry leading manufacturer and distributor of hydraulic specialty equipment, offering a unique approach to municipal stormwater management. Founded in 1952 and headquartered in Boston, Stetco products can be seen across America. Stetco powers fleets for domestic municipal clients from New York City, throughout New England, and all the way to Chicago, as well as internationally in Mexico, Venezuela, and Egypt.

27 Washington Street
Westborough, MA 01581-1052
800.338.7838
sales@stetco.com
www.stetco.com