

The A-150 Pipe Crawler makes sewer pipe inspections simple using camera mounted portable technology. Ideal for small to medium diameter spaces, this durable crawler captures and organizes data for easy analysis. Extend the versatility of your Stetco unit with the ability to extract videos, map data, and create comprehensive reports. (Available in two packages: A-150S and A-150X)

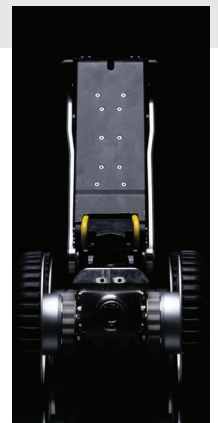

A-150S PACKAGE SPECS:

- Centers in 6"–24" pipes
- Up to 8 hours of battery life
- 7" LCD handheld controller
- 200 m tether length with a manual reel
- Included software and PACP integratable
- 1080 full HD pan/tilt camera
- Artificial intelligence compatible
- Map and model generation
- Robotic elevating arm
- 512 mHz sonde
- Rubber wheel kits

A-150X PACKAGE UPGRADES:

- 310 m tether length with a powered reel
- 10" rugged tablet
- 8" and 10" carbide wheel kits

STETCO

ABOUT STETCO

Stetco is the industry leading manufacturer and distributor of hydraulic specialty equipment, offering a unique approach to municipal stormwater management. Founded in 1952 and headquartered in Boston, Stetco products can be seen across America. Stetco powers fleets for domestic municipal clients from New York City, throughout New England, and all the way to Chicago, as well as internationally in Mexico, Venezuela, and Egypt.

27 Washington Street
Westborough, MA 01581-1052
800.338.7838
sales@stetco.com
www.stetco.com