

Seminar

BIODIVERSITY, ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE AND INNOVATIVE PUBLIC POLICY

TUE 29 NOVEMBER 2016 • UCLouvain

10.00 Introduction

Brendan Coolsaet

Université catholique de Louvain

10.15 Justice and conservation

Prof. Adrian Martin

University of East Anglia

11.00 Equity and Efficiency in Payments for Environmental Services (tbc.)

Prof. Unai Pascual

Basque Center for Climate Change

11.45 Overcoming the tragedy of the commons in crop disease management

Dr. Mourad Hannachi

Institut National de Recherche Agronomique (INRA)

12.30 Lunch break

13.30 Learning in governance networks: A review of public administration research

Cécile Riche, Prof. David Aubin

and Prof. Stéphane Moyson

Université catholique de Louvain

14.15 Public policy for ecological/ social profit economy initiatives

Prof. Tom Dedeurwaerdere

Université catholique de Louvain

The seminar will be followed by the public defence of Brendan Coolsaet's doctoral thesis, Farming Justice. Rights based approaches to collective agrobiodiversity governance (4pm - Room MORE 56)

Room MORE 72 • Collège Thomas More
Université catholique de Louvain
Place Montesquieu 2 • Louvain-la-Neuve

Organisation: Brendan Coolsaet et Tom Dedeurwaerdere
Contact: brendan.coolsaet@uclouvain.be

UCL
Université
catholique
de Louvain

Centre de Philosophie du Droit