

GPA Midstream Technical Committee Charter:

Measurement & Quantity Determination

- Develop new and maintain existing standards, procedures and methods relative to measurement and quantity determination.
- Provide a forum for measurement personnel from member companies to share practices related to measurement and quantity determination
- Member companies assign individuals to participate in MAQD who have job responsibilities related to product measurement and quantity determination

Technical Standards & Specifications: Comment/Participate/Inform/Review/Revise standards assigned to this committee. The list of currently assigned standards can be found on the GPA Midstream website.

- Interaction with other GPA Midstream Committees and GPA Midstream and GPSA member companies
  - Responsible for surveying the needs for technical information, procedures and standards relating to measurement in the midstream industry.
  - Provide resources and support for the GPA Midstream School of Gas Chromatography
  - Keep apprised of the regulatory environment as it pertains to measurement and quantity determination
- Interaction with other Industry and Regulatory Organizations such as
  - American Petroleum Institute (API)
  - American Gas Association (AGA)
  - American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM)
  - Bureau of Land Management (BLM)
  - National Institute of Standards Technology (NIST)

GPA Midstream Association
Sixty Sixty American Plaza, Suite 700
Tulsa, Oklahoma 74135
(918) 493-3872

Updated 2/25/2022

