

Jane Langan Mach

jlanganmach@remboltlawfirm.com

Jane Langan Mach is a partner at Rembolt Ludtke, where she has been practicing since 1995. She focuses primarily on family law issues, particularly complex divorce, paternity, custody, and child support, including both trial and appellate work. Jane is a Certified Parenting Act Mediator. She also has worked with the rehabilitation or liquidation of insurance companies. Jane has taught Pretrial Litigation Skills and Family Law at the University of Nebraska College of Law and has been a regular speaker at the Family Law Section's annual seminar.

PRACTICE AREAS

- Domestic Relations
- Agriculture
- Mediation
- Insurance
- Litigation

ADMISSIONS

- Nebraska
- U.S. Supreme Court
- U.S. District Court (D. Neb.)

EDUCATION

- University of Nebraska - Lincoln, B.A., with high distinction, 1992
- University of Nebraska College of Law, J.D., with highest distinction, 1995

PROFESSIONAL/COMMUNITY

- Certified Parenting Act Mediator
- Nebraska Lawyers Foundation
- American Bar Foundation Fellow 1/3 of 1% of attorneys (Former Nebraska State Chair)
- Nebraska Association of Trial Attorneys
- Defense Counsel Association of Nebraska
- Robert VanPelt American Inns of Court

SUCCESSES

- Represents primarily high net worth individuals in complex divorces and represents insurance companies in liquidation.
- Admitted to U.S. Supreme Court.
- Perfect 10.0 rating ("Superb") on Avvo.com.
- Martindale Hubbell AV® Preeminent™ Peer Review Rating (4.9/5.0)
- Top 10 in Client Satisfaction, American Institute of Family Law Attorneys 2015-2016.