2022 Ontario Property Tax Summit

Facing Ontario's Challenges: Looking to the Future

The International Property Tax Institute (IPTI) facilitated the first Ontario Property Tax Summit in 2012 with follow up Summits in 2013, 2016 and 2018. At those Summits, key stakeholders expressed their views pertaining to the current state of property taxation and challenges facing all Ontarians. Lively discussions identified what worked well and what needed improvement.

The 2022 Property Tax Summit will explore a variety of topics including the impact of COVID-19 on property markets and property taxation, reassessment postponements and delays, and evaluate the current challenges facing all stakeholders. Issues of transparency, fairness, simplicity, communications, valuations, taxation and appeals will be discussed. Suggestions for further strengthening and improving Ontario's current property tax system will be provided. All stakeholders are invited to participate in the discussion.
