TBFS BOOK LAUNCH

“This is a bold book, daring to take up some of the basic but unexamined assumptions of modern Western Indology.”

– Arvind Sharma, Birks Professor of Comparative Religion, McGill University

“I welcome this debate that Rajiv Malhotra has brought out into the open about the status of Sanskrit studies in the world, including in particular its homeland, India. This book should trigger a discussion on the scientific qualities of Sanskrit, in particular the tradition's emphasis on empiricism, and on the similarities and differences between Indian and Western approaches to knowledge.”

– Roddam Narasimha, Eminent Aerospace Scientist and recipient of the Padma Vibhushan

ACADEMIC HINDUPHOBIA BOOK LAUNCH

“India is grateful to Rajiv Malhotra for his decades of personal sacrifice and pioneering original research. He has exposed the global nexus of Hinduphobia and established the foundations of India's Grand Narrative.”

– Dr Subramanian Swamy, Member of Indian Parliament

“As usual, Rajiv Malhotra is at his brilliant best.”

– Ajit Doval, National Security Advisor

“The first perceptive Indian to warn us cogently about this plot to break up our country by an alliance of Afro-Dalit Tribals, NGOs and Christian evangelists was Rajiv Malhotra in his scholarly work, Breaking India. Today, what he was warning us about is coming to pass. Civilisational alarm bells must go off among all patriotic Indians in the face of this concerted psychological and information warfare. India owes Rajiv a great debt of gratitude for his tireless service to fight for and uphold the values of this most ancient civilization. We can serve the cause of defending our civilisation by reading and disseminating his thoroughly researched books. More power to your pen, Rajiv, and our grateful thanks for your untiring efforts, including this latest one.”

– Maj Gen (Dr) GD Bakshi SM, VSM (Retd)

Infinity Foundation, India, was incorporated in August 2016, with an objective to conduct pro-Bharat research, and to carry out academic events and publish the results digitally as well as in print.

Swadeshi Indology Conference Series

- First TWO conferences held (July 2016 & Feb 2017).
- Infinity Foundation will publish eight academic volumes of papers and monographs from the first two conferences.
- Plans for three more conferences on different strategic topics are being finalised.

This conference series has been envisioned to counter the 250-year-old narrative of Western Indology, which helped the British to colonize our minds and devastate our sanskriti.

The Swadeshi Indology Conference Series and publications analyzing and responding to the well-orchestrated, systematic attack on:

- (a) the foundational elements (the Vedas, Upanishads, Itihasas, and Puranas),
- (b) the living principles (the purushartha and the varnashrama system),
- (c) the cultural manifestations (Shastras, Kavyas, and Kalas) and
- (d) the sacredness of the still living articulations (art, temples, kumbha-mela, festivals, family and social-structures) that embody sanatana dharma.

Swadeshi Indology Conference Series

A major goal of Infinity Foundation India is to train at least 108 young scholars in Swadeshi Indology over the next few years. This is to be achieved through their independent research presented in our Swadeshi Indology conferences, through workshops that we organize, and to coach them as research assistants for our senior scholars.

In July 2016, the first Swadeshi Indology Conference (SI-1) was held at IIT Madras, Tamil Nadu. This conference was a Purvapaksha of the school of Neo-Orientalism that is led by its main proponent Sheldon Pollock. The conference used as its basis, the book The Battle for Sanskrit. The Academic Director of the conference was Shri KS Kannan.

The second Swadeshi Indology Conference (SI-2), a three-day conference on the theme — Global Perceptions of Indian Heritage — was held in February 2017, collaboratively with the Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts (IGNCA), New Delhi.

There were 35 papers interspersed with plenary talks and a traditional format of debate called Vakyartha sadas at SI-2. Both SI-1 and SI-2 have delivered serious blows to the Neo-Orientalist school of Indology.

The videos of the inaugural and valedictory sessions of the conference can be seen here and here. The best papers and monograph presentations have also been uploaded and can be accessed in this playlist.

The next Swadeshi Indology Conference will be on the Aryan-Dravidian Theory with focus on Tamil Nadu. It is planned for Q4 2017, Chennai, India. A Call for Papers has been announced recently. "Tamil Nadu – The Land of Dharma"

DIALOGUE WITH THE MASTERS SERIES LAUNCHED

Many dialogues with the most influential leaders from the field of spirituality, politics, media, academics, arts, etc. have been conducted to bring out the key ideas and tattva from each of these important voices. Rajiv Malhotra explains: "I want each voice to shine in his or her glory in my dialogues. My role is to drill deep and bring out the essence of their ideas clearly articulated for my audience. We Hindus need to be able to discuss openly with each other on our own terms, without Hinduphobics or other outsiders meddling or wanting to play the role of a referee. I also want this to be a way to create a network of voices that can at some level support each other in dealing with the outside world."
