World Book Day – 7th March

Look out for information about dressing-up, activities and Scholastic Book Fair from Mrs Ball on Class Dojo and Tapestry.

PFSA – Pre-loved World Book Day costumes

The PFSA are encouraging any out-grown costumes suitable for World Book Day to be shared with others. If you would like to donate a costume, please donate on a hanger and add to the PFSA clothes rail in the school reception area. If you are looking for a costume, please check out the clothes rail in the reception area after half-term - a donation to the PFSA will be welcomed.

Rotakids

Rotakids have been busy planning their next fundraising venture this term and linking with World Book Day, they are preparing a book quiz. Each child will be given a quiz to complete at home. If they wish to enter the competition, they are to return their completed quiz form to school with a £1 coin attached to the form. All correct entries will go into a prize draw for a National Book Token. Look out for quizzes in book bags after half-term! You have to be in it – to win it!

Scaffolding

You will have noticed a large amount of scaffolding appear around the front of our school. This is to facilitate the installation of solar panels as part of the Trust's Sustainability Programme. This will enable school to reduce its overall carbon footprint.

Reporting to Parents

During next half-term parents will receive a written mid-year report for their child followed by a parents' evening during the final week of term. Parents of pupils in Year 5 and parents of pupils in Nightingale class will have their parents' evening arranged for different dates due to the residential visit to Robinwood and Mrs Moss's absence. Parents of these classes will be informed separately of the arrangements for reports and parents' evening.

Young Voices Concert

Given the weather on Thursday, I think everyone was relieved that the concert in Manchester was on Wednesday! Once again, the event was a fantastic experience for our children to be part of, so a huge thank you goes out to the staff and volunteers who enabled this trip to go ahead for our choir.
