

TIMOTHY HOFMANN

VISUAL ARTIST

Since an early age I've been fascinated by storytelling and visual communication. I'm a self-driven visual designer and illustrator with multiple years of experience in bringing aesthetic solutions to life from conceptualization to realization. My mission is to display the message of my clients in a visual design that is effective and innovative. Sometimes standardisation is a good and safe approach, but not always! I like to think outside the box and get inspired by both design and creative expression, where lines and boundaries can merge, allowing for a less conventional, more-unique vision to stand out! What's your story? Let's tell it together!
