ICM NEWSLETTER 14th November 2022

Congratulations Institute of Credit Management South Africa, NPC Credit Professional Body on Celebrating 70 years registered in 1952

2022 is a year of great celebration for the Institute of Credit Management South Africa NPC Credit Professional Body.

The Institute celebrated 70 years as the custodian of Credit Management in South Africa this is indeed a great reason to celebrate.

This was celebrated at Summer Place in Boksburg, during the annual National Gala Awards with a lineup of Nominees in the Professional field.

The competition was tough with some worthy candidates, and the judging was of a very high standard.

Various awards were given out as well as bursaries to learners for studying during 2023 by the Institute as well as Credit Blende Training.

Top Learners of the Year were also announced.

The evening was enjoyed and celebrated by all as the Institute of Credit Management of South Africa goes into their 71st year looking after Credit Professionals in South Africa maintaining a high standard of Professionalism.

Teaching South Africans the knowledge which enables Credit Practitioners how to manage credit in South Africa, which is what the South African market requires in order to remain in business.
