About Carry

Carry: Athlete Investing Inc. ("Carry") is a registered, Delaware C-Corp that operates primarily out of South Carolina, where it is also registered to conduct business. Carry is a fan engagement platform that assists "early-stage" professional athletes with the procurement of funding to support their career development by facilitating private investments in these athletes' careers from individuals and entities, in strict accordance with applicable statutes and regulations.

The Company has formed the Carry Golf Club LLC to support its Reg CF campaign for the purpose of raising and distributing funds to its "2023 Cohort" athletes from private investors. When applicable, Carry Golf Club LLC will provide annual distributions to its members who invest in the careers of the 2023 Cohort via the Reg CF campaign. Carry: Athlete Investing Inc. is the managing entity for Carry Golf Club LLC. The CEO of both entities is Donald Dotson.

Disclosures for Reg CF Campaign

Read the Offering information carefully before investing. It contains details of the issuer's business, risks, charges, expenses, and other information, which should be considered carefully before investing. Obtain a Form C and Offering Memorandum at <https://www.invest.carry.golf/>. Equity crowdfunding investments in private placements, and start-up investments in particular, are speculative and involve a high degree of risk and those investors who cannot afford to lose their entire investment should not invest. Companies seeking startup investment through equity crowdfunding tend to be in earlier stages of development and their business model, products and services may not yet be fully developed, operational or tested in the public marketplace.

Additionally, certain information set forth in our website may contain "forward-looking information", including "future-oriented financial information" and "financial outlook", under applicable securities laws (collectively referred to herein as forward-looking statements). Forward-looking statements are provided to allow potential investors the opportunity to understand management's beliefs and opinions in respect of the future so that they may use such beliefs and opinions as one factor in evaluating an investment. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and undue reliance should not be placed on them. Such forward-looking statements necessarily involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties, which may cause actual performance and financial results in future periods to differ materially from any projections of future performance or result expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements.
