

LEGALIST'S POST-JUDGMENT FINANCING APPROVAL PROCESS

Introductory Call (2-5 days)

- Your dedicated investment manager will introduce Legalist, and discuss how financing works.
- After the call, you'll need to send us your engagement letter so we can verify your allocation of the judgment.

Termsheet Discussion (3-7 days)

- Once we receive the engagement letter, we will send you the termsheet and walk through it together on a call so you know what to expect.
- If all looks good, you can go ahead and sign and send it back. Otherwise, you can send us a redline and we'll work together to come to terms acceptable to both sides.

Underwriting (1-2 weeks)

- Once the termsheet is signed, we'll do further investigation into the case so our investment committee can evaluate the risks before moving forward.
- Most of this is done in-house, but we may have a few requests from you, such as any insight you have into the collectability of the defendant and the strategy for enforcing the judgment.

Funding Agreement (1-10 days)

- Once our underwriting team has approved the investment, we'll issue a litigation funding agreement ("LFA").
- We'll give you some time to review, discuss and get comfortable with the agreement.
- Once signed, we can issue payments.
