The European Litigation Funding Association (ELFA) adds Litigium Capital - marking the organisation's first Nordic member

BRUSSELS, 11 October 2023: The European Litigation Funding Association (ELFA) is delighted to announce that Litigium Capital has become the latest member to join the organisation.

"Joining ELFA is a natural step for Litigium Capital. From a European perspective, the legal financing market is still evolving and, as such, subject to continuous development and innovation. It is essential that key players within the market set standards for, and monitor, responsible operations. By joining ELFA, we continue our commitment to industry best practice in our mission to further develop litigation funding in our home markets", says Litigium Capital's CEO, Thony Lindström Härdin.

Omni Bridgeway Managing Director and ELFA Chairman, Wieger Wielinga commented: "I am delighted to welcome Litigium Capital as the latest ELFA member and first Nordic based litigation funder. Litigium's core mission to establish litigation funding as a well-recognised and widely used form of financing in the Nordics, aligns perfectly with ELFA's aims. We look forward to collaborating with Litigium founders, Thony Lindström Härdin and Oscar Holm."

About ELFA:

ELFA was founded by three leading litigation funders with a European footprint, Deminor, Nivalion AG, and Omni Bridgeway Limited. ELFA's current directors are Charles Demoulin (Chief Investment Officer, Deminor); Marcel Wegmüller (Co-Founder and Co-CEO, Nivalion AG); and Wieger Wielinga (Managing Director EMEA, Omni Bridgeway), who is ELFA's Chairman. The intention of the association is to be inclusive for all professional litigation funders of larger or smaller size.

About Litigium:

Litigium Capital is a Swedish investment company dedicated to legal financing. Litigium Capital focuses on funding litigation and arbitration disputes in the Nordics, as well as funding Nordic clients globally. Combining legal and financial expertise for superior risk assessments and customer service, Litigium Capital's vision is to make legal financing a natural tool for companies of all sizes in the Nordics.
