

Caroline Lagendijk

Caroline's practice at Straatman Koster advocaten is focused on procurement law. She became a Partner at our firm on 1 January 2017.

Caroline graduated in 2007 from Leiden University with a degree in civil law, European law and international law. After several years working as a lawyer specialising in procurement law and competition law at Van Benthem & Keulen Advocaten & Notariaat in Utrecht, she joined Straatman Koster advocaten in 2011.

Expertise:

In 2014, Caroline successfully completed the post-doctoral specialised programme in European and Dutch procurement law at the Grotius Academy. Between 2013 and 2016, she was editorial secretary for the procurement law journal 'Tijdschrift Aanbestedingsrecht' (now: 'Tijdschrift voor Aanbestedingsrecht en Staatssteun' (Procurement Law and State Aid journal)). Caroline also has a tenured post as lecturer for the Planned Economy & Real Estate Law programme at the Scobe Academy. In addition, she has lectured in various courses of programmes at the Netherlands Institute for Construction Law (IBR) since 2015.

Caroline has listed the following main and secondary legal practice areas in the register of legal practice areas of the Netherlands Bar (Nederlandse orde van advocaten, NOVA):

- Procurement law

This listing requires her to obtain ten training credits in each registered main legal practice area in accordance with the standards of the Netherlands Bar each calendar year.

Practice areas

Procurement law

Contact

Mobile: +31 6 24 46 50 69

E-mail: c.lagendijk@straatmankoster.nl

Office: +31 10 24 00 447