

Femke Steenbakkens

In 2017, while studying Law at Leiden University, Femke began as a student legal assistant at Habraken Rutten advocaten in Rotterdam, where she handled various construction law and real estate law-related matters.

In 2019, Femke joined Straatman Koster advocaten, also in the role of student legal assistant, focusing in particular on general administrative law and environmental and planning law. In February 2020, she began her Master's degree in Constitutional and Administrative Law at Leiden University, which she obtained with honours in June 2021. Femke became a lawyer at Straatman Koster advocaten in September 2021.

Practice areas

Land policy

Area development

Government liability

Environmental and planning law

Expertise:

Femke specialises in general administrative law, environmental and planning law and area development at Straatman Koster advocaten.

Some publications:

- “Een betaalbare huizenmarkt: zelfbewoningsplicht en opkoopbescherming als oplossing?”, article co-authored with Tosca van Halsema and published on Omgevingsweb.

Contact

Mobile: +31 6 82 06 86 66

E-mail: femke.steenbakkens@straatmankoster.nl

Office: +31 10 24 00 447