Our Space

Lighthouse Artspace Pittsburgh located at 720 E Lacock St, Pittsburgh, PA 15212 is a warehouse of wonders – fully transformed to reflect the spirit and muse of Van Gogh's greatest works. This 33,500 square foot warehouse has seen a full renovation to become a huge sweeping master gallery of floor to ceiling projections with over 60 projectors in place to transform the floors and walls into a technological masterpiece of animated works. Outfitted with nods and tributes to the city, this installation features the great works of Rowan Doyle, previous creative designer at Meow Wolf and Museum of Ice Cream.
