Featured Cosplayers

RIVAL SKIES COSPLAY

After telling a former classmate in 2008 that she could never see herself cosplaying due to shyness, she ate her words not even 2 years later. RivalSkies has been creating cosplays for both fun and competition since 2010. Rival is a hobbyist at heart and loves to create her favorite characters alongside her friends for nothing more than to have a great time at conventions. Her ultimate goals as a cosplayer? To be a good role model for younger cosplayers and to have fun with the hobby itself! When not gallivanting around in Spanx and layers of makeup and hairspray, she can be found in a laboratory with a trusty microscope or at home with her and her roommates' rescue dogs, DaVinci and Mabel.

COSPLAYS FROM TRASH

Kyle J. Kirby has been a maker in woodworking, sewing, and metalwork for 2+ decades and found the perfect home for his skills in cosplay. With frugality, accessibility, and sustainability in mind, Kyle has used his passion to make award winning cosplays and share knowledge and encouragement to first time makers and veterans alike. He exemplifies his two rules of cosplay – “Don't let anyone tell you that your cosplays aren't good enough” and more importantly, “Have fun.”

Kyle's mission is to encourage anyone and everyone to cosplay and break down the barriers that can hold people back from stepping into their first project. On a mission to prove that cosplays can be made from anything on a budget, you can follow his journey, find encouragement, and learn new skills on Kyle's Instagram and YouTube channel.

BIONIC STARS

Greetings Evillecon, my name is Bionic Stars! I'm an author, GUNPLA-builder, video game player and anime enthusiast! I've been actively around the local Kentuckiana convention scene since 2021 and am grateful getting to contribute to it. I write deep-dive style panels about anime and genres that deeply inspire my passion that I hope might inspire you. Unlike my peers, I got into anime starting in college with Madoka Magica and stumbled my way through everything from Monogatari to Railgun alike. With far too much to say about my favorites, I hope you can stop by my panels and see just what it is that I love about this medium and how it's changed how I view stories and media alike!

FLOWER CROWN COSPLAY

Flower Crown Cosplays is a group of friends who have been running in-character panels for the past 10 years. Over time, members have come and gone, but the spirit of the group has remained strong! We host panels such as game shows and incorporate in-character improv comedy and skits to entertain our audiences. We enjoy interacting with attendees and distributing prizes. This year, we have our Fruits Basket and Ouran High School Host Club groups attending, and we hope to see you at our panels!

SPINNERET

Spinneret is an award-winning cosplayer (and Cossack sword spinner) whose costumes blend historical detail and modern electronics. She does cosplay how-to presentations around the Midwest on a variety of topics - from machine embroidery to programming NeoPixels.
