

Arrangement

The Company makes available the Corporate Communications of the Company (other than Actionable Corporate Communication) to shareholders by electronic means through the website of the Company at <https://www.hunghingprinting.com> (the “Company Website”) and the website of Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited at www.hkexnews.hk (the “HKEXnews Website”, together with the Company Website, the “Websites”), if the relevant shareholders have consented, or are deemed to have consented, to receive the Websites version of the Corporate Communications, as described in section headed “Electronic Dissemination of Corporate Communications (Other than Actionable Corporate Communications)” below. Shareholders and investors who wish to be notified of the Corporate Communications published by the Company may also subscribe for the News Alerts service on the HKEX website. Printed form of the Corporate Communications will be sent to those shareholders who have made written requests, or whose consent of receiving Websites version (express or deemed) has not been sought.

Pursuant to the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, the Company must send Actionable Corporate Communications to securities holders individually and cannot comply with a rule requirement by making the Actionable Corporate Communications available only through the Websites. Under the arrangement, Actionable Corporate Communications of the Company will be sent in printed form to securities holders individually.

“Corporate Communication” refers to all documents issued or to be issued by the Company for their information or action to holders of any of our securities, including, but not limited to, the directors’ report and annual accounts together with a copy of the auditor’s report, the interim report, a notice of meeting, a listing document, a circular and a proxy form.

“Actionable Corporate Communication” refers to any Corporate Communication that seeks instructions from securities holders of the Company on how they wish to exercise their rights or make an election as securities holders of the Company but it does not include notices of general meetings and proxy forms.

Electronic Dissemination of Corporate Communications (other than Actionable Corporate Communications)

The Company will seek consent from each new registered shareholder to receiving the Websites version of all future Corporate Communications, other than Actionable Corporate Communications. If the Company has not received a response indicating the shareholder’s objection within a period of 28 days from the Company’s request, the registered shareholder will be deemed to have elected the Websites version instead of a printed version, and a notification of the posting of the relevant Corporate Communications on the Company Website will be sent to the shareholder by email, or if no email address is provided by the shareholder, by post at the address recorded on the register of members of the Company.

Actionable Corporate Communication will be sent to registered shareholders individually by post to their addresses as appeared in the Company’s register of members.

A registered shareholder who has elected (or is deemed to have elected) the Websites version but for any reason has difficulty in accessing the relevant Corporate Communications posted on the Company Website, or wishes to receive printed copies of such Corporate Communications, the Company will upon request, send the printed version free of charge within 21 days (or within 7 days if such documents require an action to be taken by him/her). Nonetheless, such request does not constitute a change in his/her election. Please refer to the section headed “Election of Language and Means of Receipt of Corporate Communications” below for a revocation and change of your previous election.

For non-registered shareholders, notifications of the publication of the Corporate Communications on the Company’s website will be sent by email, and if no email addresses are provided, by post. Non-registered shareholders may also request to receive the Printed Versions of Corporate Communications.

Election of Language and Means of Receipt of Corporate Communications

Upon publication of our Corporate Communication(s) on our Company’s website, registered shareholders and non-registered shareholders who wish to receive the relevant Corporate Communication(s) in printed form or in a language version other than their existing choices may submit a request form to the Company’s Share Registrar, Tricor Tengis Limited (“Share Registrar”).

Registered shareholders and non-registered shareholders may from time to time change their choices of language or means of receiving Corporate Communications. A shareholder’s request for the Printed Version of future Corporate Communications will remain valid until the instruction has been revoked or superseded from the date of receiving his/her instruction.

All requests should be sent to the Share Registrar, at 17/F, Far East Finance Centre, 16 Harcourt Road, Hong Kong, or by email to hunghing-ecom@hk.tricorglobal.com.

Shareholders who have any queries in relation to the election of language and means of receipt of Corporate Communications may call the enquiry hotline of the Share Registrar at (852) 2980 1333 during business hours (9:00 am to 6:00 pm, Monday to Friday, excluding Hong Kong public holidays) or send their queries by email to hunghing-ecom@hk.tricorglobal.com.
