ATLANTIC CAPITAL PARTNERS STRENGTHENS ITS TEAMS WITH TWO STRATEGIC RECRUITMENTS

*Paris, January 09, 2023 - Atlantic Capital Partners announces the recruitment of Julien SUREAU as Chairman and Loïc VILLEBRUN as Institutional Director.

Both 43 years old, these two investment specialists have been working in a demanding institutional environment for over 20 years within leading financial institutions.

Julien SUREAU began his career in 2001 at Allianz Global Investors before joining Unigestion Asset Management and then Cedrus & Partners, where he was Managing Director since 2020. He will be responsible for developing the company's offering and implementing its growth strategy.

Loïc VILLEBRUN is the former Institutional Director of Muzinich & Co which he joined in 2016. He previously held similar positions at Franklin Templeton Investments and Tocqueville Finance. His role at Atlantic Capital Partners will be to promote the entire range of products developed by the Atlantic Financial Group to French institutional clients.

Julien Sureau and Loïc Villebrun will be based in Paris and will complete a team of 15 specialists. This recruitment will allow the company to further develop its current offer and help diversify the distribution activities.

"Julien and Loïc will contribute to our understanding of the needs of the institutional world with which our Group has already established strong relationships. We intend to further develop our dedicated offer to these players, which we consider key in the French landscape," said Julien DUNIAGUE, Managing Partner of Atlantic Financial Group.

"The flexibility of our group allows us to offer our clients adapted financial services and products, based on the expertise of recognized investment specialists."
