

Alde Gott Red & Sweet Spatburgunder

Background: Alde Gott, established in 1948 has its 580 acres of vineyards shared by 415 members of a co-operative. Although the area is a Riesling stronghold, the co-operative has made a name for itself with the red Spatburgunder (Pinot Noir) from the Sasbachwaldener Alde Gott side, of which 60% is planted with the Spatburgunder.

Grape Varietal: Produced from the Pinot Noir (Spatburgunder) grape, the most important red grape of Germany.

Quality : QbA- Qualitätswein

Country of Origin: Germany

Appellation: Baden

Baden is the southernmost of Germany's wine regions, a long slim strip that extends from near Heidelberg in the north to Lake Constance in the south. This is the famed "Black Forest" area.

Technical data:

Type of bottle : 750 ml bottle

Type of Closure: cork closure

UPC: 628657799827

Analytical data:

Alcohol content: 10 %vol

Residual Sugar: 70 g/l

Tasting Notes: Red & sweet with aromas reminiscent of cherries, strawberries and blackcurrants. A fruit driven wine like diving into a fruit salad. Lush and balanced.

Food Suggestion: Enjoy with cheese, for the lovers of sweet & red at your cozy times.

CSPC # 719416

