

Terra Molino Tempranillo

Background: Spain has a long history of producing fine wines. Spain has the largest area of land dedicated to viniculture of any country in the world.

Grape Varietal: Spain's Noble Tempranillo grape
Tempranillo has been grown in Spain since the time of Phoenician settlements. In 2015 Tempranillo was the third most widely planted wine grape worldwide.

Country of Origin: Spain

Appellation: Carineana-Northern Spain in the Aragon

Technical data:

Type of bottle : 750 ml bottle

Type of Closure: Stelvin closure

UPC: 4008005043691

Analytical data:

Alcohol content: 12.5 %vol.

Residual Sugar: 6.4 g/l

Tasting Notes: Full-bodied red with a rich palate and spicy vanilla tones. Showing charming juicy strawberry notes. Smooth and mellow. Rich and intense with reflexes of dark berries and plum.

Food Suggestion: Absolutely delicious on its own, but pairs well with roast lamb. Also a good companion to beef, veal and poultry.

CSPC # 802341

