Facts - What Does JL Bainbridge Financial Do with Your Personal Information?

Why do we collect/Share personal information?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the sections below, we list the reasons why financial companies can share their customers' personal information, what information can be shared, the reasons JL Bainbridge chooses to share personal information, and whether you can limit this sharing. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

The types of personal information we collect can include:

Social Security number	Investment experience
Income/Assets	Account transactions
Name	Address
Email	Phone Numbers
Account Numbers	Driver license or Passport Information
Date of Birth

When you are no longer our customer, we will continue to hold your information and share it as described in this notice.

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information.

How does JL Bainbridge protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. Our online environment uses security technologies, including layered security and access controls over personal information. For further information, please visit our website or call us directly at 800-899-5171.

How does JL Bainbridge Financial collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- Open an account
- Apply for insurance
- Seek advice about your investments
- Tell us about your Investment Advisory Portfolio
- Enter into an investment advisory account

We also collect your personal information from others such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Can I limit sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account, I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
