CHC33015 - Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing)

alffie's CHC33015 - Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing) prepares participants for a client facing role in Australia's health and community services industry. Throughout this course, our friendly team will assist participants in developing skills and knowledge that will enhance their ability to work confidently, effectively and safely in a variety of health and community services environments.

From training.gov.au

This qualification reflects the role of workers in the community and/or residential setting who follow an individualised plan to provide person-centred support to people who may require support due to ageing, disability or some other reason. Work involves using discretion and judgement in relation to individual support as well as taking responsibility for own outputs. Workers have a range of factual, technical and procedural knowledge, as well as some theoretical knowledge of the concepts and practices required to provide person-centred support.

Course information

Course duration: 1320 hours

- Semester 1: 495 hours
- Semester 2: 705 hours

Work placement: 120 hours

Important note: Enrolment will be valid for up to 12 months.

This course is delivered online through a combination of written and audiovisual lesson material. The assessments are interactive and simulate real-life working conditions and environments.

To achieve this qualification, the student must complete 120 hours of work placement, as outlined in the assessment requirements for each unit of competency. Please note, alffie will assist with the work placement process but cannot guarantee practical placement. Participants are required to get both their COVID-19 and flu vaccinations before starting work placement in an aged care facility.
