New Products and Services

Clear Street Studio: A single platform for investors on a global scale.

Our flagship product. The all-in-one portfolio management platform designed with emerging managers in mind. Seamlessly access your risk and margin, exposures, P&L, and analytics reports at the tip of your finger.

Clear Street® Studio allows you to focus on growing your business. We'll handle the rest.

Futures: Coming soon

Clear Street acquired the React Consulting Services, LLC team and their proprietary, cloud-native futures clearing platform, BASIS.

"We are thrilled to join Clear Street and accelerate the company's launch into futures on the firm's proprietary, cloud-native platform."

— Dave Evans, Managing Director

Investment Banking: The next-generation investment bank.

A broad suite of financial solutions paired with Clear Street's best-in-class sales, trading, and prime brokerage platform.

Fixed Income: Serving dedicated fixed-income clients and multi-strategy investment managers.

While it can take other prime brokers years to add new asset classes, we built fixed-income capabilities on our platform in just six months.

"Launching fixed income required coordination across the business, from engineering teams to risk, clearing and custody, settlements, and securities finance. It's a testament to both the deep expertise of our subject matter experts with decades of experience in financial services and the strength of our engineering teams."

— Prerak Sanghvi, Vice President, Engineering

The Future is Bright for Clear Street

“We have tremendous confidence in Clear Street’s outlook and look forward to continuing our partnership in the Company’s next phase of accelerated growth.”

— Matt Roberts, Co-Founder & Partner, Prysm Capital

“Our team has made incredible strides since our inception in 2018, and this additional funding is further testament to the value that we bring to our clients. Over the past year, the number of institutional clients on our platform increased by 500 percent and our daily transactional volume increased over 300 percent. We’re excited to keep this momentum with support from our continued partnership with Prysm”

— Chris Pento, Co-Founder and CEO, Clear Street
