

LIRA

The Lira armchair brings forward fresh and different opportunities for use and styling. This oversized armchair combines a wood structure and metallic legs with soft, pillow-like elements. Through its clean lines and simple details, it communicates understated elegance.

Crafted with a reinforced wood frame, the Lira features high arms, a streamlined silhouette, and sleek dowel feet for a mid-century-inspired contemporary look. Foam and fiber filling gives the cushions an inviting feel, while precise sewing and construction give this piece a timeless feel.

The Lira sectional fuses the classic with the modern through its plush seating and clean design lines. Its beautifully crafted Modern steel legs enhance its strong and sturdy construction, while its backrests and armrests allow you to sink in comfortably.

Featuring strong rectangular lines and deep, low-profile seating, the Lira sectional is a gathering space in itself.
