Principal's Message

Dear parents and carers

There have been issues with the telephones at school today and we thank you for your patience as Telstra works to resolve the problem and restore our normal service.

The junior school had an excursion to the Kyneton Town Hall yesterday and they enjoyed a very entertaining live performance.

"JUNKLANDIA" offered music, drama and lots of audience participation. It was a welcome addition to our term 2 Performing Arts program.

The information about the 2023 school photos was sent home with children this week. Please read the information carefully so your photo order is processed correctly. Children must be in full school uniform for photos. There is a bit of time to check your child's uniform items to ensure you have all items in the correct size. Both the new and second-hand uniform shops are well stocked at the moment so you can replace anything that is old or too small. Still on the topic of uniform, I have noticed in recent days that quite a few students with long hair are forgetting to tie it back. Please remind both boys and girls that long hair should be tied back every day for school.

The performing arts will be on show again this

Thursday 8th June with the annual Tylden's Got Talent (TGT) event. Each performance in TGT is entirely devised and rehearsed by the children themselves and the audience will see a variety of acts including dance, stand-up comedy, instrumental and vocal items. TGT is one of my favourite school events in the school calendar. It is always entertaining for the audience and each performer gains valuable experience of presenting in front of a live audience. Parents and carers are warmly invited to attend. TGT will be held in the "Big Shed" commencing at 1:30pm. As the shed is not heated, please remember to dress warmly. If you arrive after the event has started, please use the entrance towards the rear of the shed. You are welcome to record your own child's performance, but please remember that for privacy reasons, you may not record other children.

I hope to see you at TGT this Thursday 8th June. Have a lovely weekend!

Regards
