- If any private dwelling house or private flat cannot be lived in following an insured event we will pay temporary accommodation for residents, storage of furniture, kennel accommodation for domestic cats and dogs and travelling expenses - 20% of the sum insured for private dwelling houses or 20% of the sum produced by dividing the buildings sum insured by the number of flats for each private flat, for a maximum period of 24 months from the date of damage.
- Fly tipping clearing costs at occupied premises - £2,500 any one claim, £5,000 any one period of insurance.

- Capital additions for newly acquired properties - £2,000,000 for occupied premises or £1,000,000 for unoccupied premises and the alterations and additions to existing properties - 20% of the total sum insured on each property or £500,000 in respect of buildings and contents of common parts (whichever is less).
- Contract works extension to provide you with cover for your insurance obligations – £100,000 any one project for the works and site materials.
- Premises that you own which you have inadvertently failed to insure will be covered provided that insurance is arranged as soon as you become aware - £2,000,000 any one premises or £500,000 if the premises is unoccupied.

What is not covered

Please refer to Section 1 Property damage within the policy document for full details.

- In respect of our buildings definition, the following are excluded: bridges, land piers, jetties, excavations and marquees. Also natural or artificial water courses, standing water such as dams, reservoirs, culverts, canals, moats, rivers and lakes or man-made elements attaching to or forming part of these.
- Gradual deterioration or wear and tear.
- Damage caused following theft unless there is clear forcible and violent entry to or exit from the buildings.
- Contents that are not your responsibility.

Are there any limitations

Please refer to Section 1 Property damage and General definitions within the policy document and your schedule for full details.

- If a building becomes unoccupied for a period exceeding 60 days cover will reduce to fire, lightning, explosion, aircraft, earthquake, subterranean fire, impact, falling trees and aerials.

What are your obligations

You must tell us as soon as reasonably possible if:

- The use of the building ceases and the building becomes vacant for a period exceeding 60 consecutive days.
- There is an alteration to the use of your building.
- You are planning building work where the contract value is in excess of £100,000 and/or if the works involve the use of external scaffolding.

Things for you to think about

Please contact your broker if any of the following apply:

- Should you have concerns that your sums insured are insufficient to meet your needs.
- You may wish to consider the 'Day One' method of inflation protection for your buildings, which provides you with a 25% uplift of the sums insured and is the most common method of insuring property.
- If you have requirements outside of the standard policy cover or the standard basis of settlement.
- If you require any optional covers, e.g. Contents of Common parts or Contents of furnished and tenanted accommodation.

Equipment Breakdown

This section is automatically included when property damage cover is in force.

What is covered

The repair or replacement of equipment, which suffers mechanical or electrical breakdown. Examples include lifts, central heating, air conditioning, office equipment, computer equipment and audio visual equipment.

How much will you be insured for

The total amount we will pay shall not exceed £5,000,000 in any one period of insurance. Within this amount the following limits apply:

- £500,000 for any one accident to computer equipment at the premises.
- £5,000 for any one accident to portable computer equipment anywhere in the world.

All accidents that are a result of the same event will be considered as one accident.

Key extensions

The cover provided by this section is extended to cover (for the limit specified or otherwise the limit of indemnity):

- Costs to reinstate data that is lost or damaged following an accident to the computer equipment or costs to avoid interruption of your computer operation - £50,000 any one accident.
- We will pay for rental income loss following an accident to the equipment insured that results in the business being interrupted or interfered with. Our limit shall not exceed the sum insured in any one claim and £100,000 in any one period of insurance.
- Damage to the property at the premises following an explosion or collapse of the insured equipment which operates under steam pressure –£1,000,000 any one accident.
- Hire charges incurred for a substitute item during the period of repair for the insured equipment – £10,000 any one accident.
- Costs relating to repair, investigations and tests by engineers for damages to covered equipment following an accident - £25,000 any one accident.
- Additional costs incurred to gain access to repair or replace the insured item following an accident. Limit £20,000 any one accident.

What is not covered

Please refer to Section 2 Equipment breakdown within the policy document for full details.

- Any loss or damage caused by a cyber related incident.
- Gradual deterioration or wear and tear.
- Damage which is covered under a maintenance agreement, warranty or guarantee.

What are your obligations

To maintain a minimum of 2 generations* of verified back-up computer records taken at intervals no less frequently than 48 hours and take all reasonable precautions to store and maintain these records.

 Generations - This term is used to describe a system of data backup. You are required to make a full copy of every file on the computer or network. Two copies are required every 48 hours. The first copy is made and stored, and then the second copy is made and stored separately. During the next 48 hours, the next copy to be made and stored will replace/overwrite the oldest copy. This process continues, always overwriting the oldest copy. Two backups are always stored before the oldest is overwritten.*

Rental income

What is covered

This section covers you for loss of rent or additional expenditure following damage by an insured event covered under the Property damage section.

Cover is provided for a specified period known as the indemnity period – this is the length of time, starting with the date the loss occurred, over which we will pay for a loss of rent (up to the sum insured) as a result of loss or damage to your property.

How much will you be insured for

The sum insured for Rent will be 30% of the Buildings sum insured as standard. Please contact your broker if you require higher limits.

In respect of rent receivable, an uplift of up to 200% of the sum insured is provided to take into account any rent reviews which would normally have taken place.

Where the sum insured is less than the annual rent you receive, the amount payable will be proportionately reduced.

Key extensions

The cover provided by this section is extended to cover loss (for the limit specified or otherwise the sum insured) resulting from the interruption of your activities due to:

- Access to your premises being prevented or hindered following damage to neighbouring property.
- Access to your premises being restricted for more than 4 hours following emergency action taken by the government, police or local authority – £10,000 any one period of insurance.
- Loss of electricity, gas, water or telecommunications following damage to your suppliers sub-station or premises.
- Restriction of access to your premises following murder, food poisoning, defective sanitation or vermin occurring or being discovered at your premises – £100,000 any one occurrence, discovery or accident.
- Loss of attraction to your premises following damage to a building or other property in the immediate vicinity – 10% of the sum insured or £250,000 whichever is the less over a three month indemnity period.
- Additional expenditure following damage to avoid or diminish the loss of rent - £25,000 per claim.
- Your irrecoverable losses following damage at your managing agents' premises - £50,000 or 20% of the sum insured, whichever is the less.

What is not covered

Please refer to Section 3 Rental income within the policy document for full details.

- Loss following damage where property damage covering your interest in the property at the premises is not in force.

Things for you to think about

If any of the following apply, please contact your broker to review:

- You have concerns that your sums insured are insufficient to meet your needs.
- You need guidance in calculating the length of time (indemnity period) to get your activities back to normal – this is critical to ensure the cover meets your needs.
- You have requirements outside of the standard policy extensions.

Terrorism

What is covered

This section provides cover for damage to your property and (should you choose) resultant loss of income insured under other sections of this policy following an Act of Terrorism.

An Act of Terrorism is defined as acts of persons acting on behalf of or in connection with any organisation which carries out activities directed towards the overthrowing or influencing by force or violence of Her Majesty's government in the United Kingdom or any other government de jure or de facto.

Cover applies in England, Wales and Scotland but not the territorial seas adjacent thereto as defined by the Territorial Sea Act 1987.

Cover is provided up to the sum insured that you provide us with (see property damage and rental income sections).

Optional cover – Non-damage Business interruption

If you decide to include the terrorism section you may choose to cover loss of income as a result of a terrorist event that does not involve physical damage to property. Contact your broker for more information.

What is not covered

Please refer to Section 4 Terrorism within the policy document for full details.

- Riot, civil commotion or war.
- Computer virus, hacking or phishing.

Things for you to think about

- Terrorism events are unpredictable and are not confined to major cities. The property damage and rental income sections do not include cover for terrorism, so if you are concerned about this risk you should consider adding the cover to your policy.
- If you choose to add cover for terrorism you must ensure that all of the property you are responsible for is insured for terrorism regardless of whether or not it is insured by us. Contact your broker to discuss this further.

Liabilities

Employers' Liability

What is covered

Employers' liability cover provides an indemnity to you for your legal liability to pay damages to employed persons following injury in the workplace during the period of insurance, as described in your policy schedule.
