Take pictures & upload them to the customer's image gallery in real time!

Scan.

GRAD PICS NOW is a flexible and simple system for photographing graduations. We collect a selfie (which acts as a reference image for facial recognition) and contact information to direct the buyer to the graduate's personal image gallery. This selfie and information create a reference image to direct pictures of the graduate directly to their gallery via facial recognition.

Snap.

With the use of a tablet, snap their pic and watch it upload it to their gallery immediately. For those without a tablet, images can also be quickly uploaded after the event via computer. With Grad Pics Now, data sorting and laborious post-event tasks are a thing of the past.

Sell.

After the pics have been taken and uploaded, Grad Pics Now automatically conducts an effective text & email campaign to the grad reminding them of their image gallery and to order at the best prices.
