

The winner of the New Generation #JazzLab Award 2022

Short Collection of Tales is an ensemble of five young musicians that was founded in October 2021 in Dresden. The compositions of their singer Kateryna Kravchenko are supported by an acoustic and warm band sound, which exhausts the timbre of each individual instrument and gives the music a depth which is rich in contrast. The melody assumes the leading role. Not subject to any pulse, it is organically embedded in complex rhythmic structures. It intertwines with the accompaniment to form a continuous unity. The synergies arising from the different backgrounds of the musicians help to create innovative sound experiences and let the pieces appear in an ever new light.

Line-Up:

Kateryna Kravchenko — vocals

Timur Valitov — tenor sax

Victor Möhmel — piano

Ivan Scholz — bass

Heinrich Eißmann — drums

Contact:

info@katerynakravchenko.com