There will be an appeal for funds and for new members next Sunday, 25th September, and refreshments served after morning Masses (including 8.30am) the following week. The same will happen at St Joseph's soon.

The project which we hope this collection will fund is the preparation of the hall at St Joseph's so that it can be used as a food bank, providing help to families and individuals, especially in this time of economic pressure. Watch this space for all the ways in which you can help.
