

transformative COACHING

We'll create a framework that matches your personality while helping you master the art of asking for what you desire.

Mazarine is the creator of the Asking for More framework and mastermind, a veteran fundraiser with years of experience going from Development Associate to Development Director, host of the Asking for More podcast, and author of The Wild Woman's Guide to Fundraising, Get the Job! Your Fundraising Career Empowerment Guide, and 10+ courses on fundraising. As an artist, Mazarine knows just how challenging yet fulfilling creative work can be. In your time with her, you're going to get creative. That's why she infuses creativity into everything she does, from presentations to coaching sessions. Your time together will be fun, focused, and move you forward.

Mazarine Treyz

Mazarine (she/her) has coached leaders for over 13 years in management, leadership, fundraising, and organizational development around diversity, equity, inclusion, access, and belonging (DEIAB). She has directed 11 online conferences, creating space for people to connect and learn. She has written three books on fundraising, marketing and careers, and has designed and taught 10+ college courses.

PRIMARY COACHING AREAS

The Future of Work

Fundraising

Leadership

Diversity, Equity, Inclusion,
Access, and Belonging

Managing Teams with Human Design

Talent Management and Employee Development

radical wisdom.

Bard College, B.A.

Graduate of Racing to Equity Leadership Cohort

