

LOCK OUT TAG OUT

Program Overview:

This program consists of a comprehensive in - class theory program covering Isolation of Hazardous Energy.

Participants will have the opportunity to handle an assortment of lockout devices and components while learning how to safety and effectively apply them to prevent accidents and damage caused by the unexpected movement of machinery and equipment due to the release of hazardous energy.

Training Content:

- Ontario Isolation of Hazardous Energy (lock out/tag out) legislation – Regulation 851
- Hazard Recognition – Risk Assessments
- “Zero Energy State”
- Lock Out Devices
- Disconnects
- What is an Emergency Stop
- Energizing and De-energizing Equipment
- The Lock Out Tag Out Program Requirements and Procedures
- Serious Mistakes

Course Duration: Two (2) Hours dependent upon number of participants.
This is also an on-line e-learning course. All you need is a computer, access to the Internet and you are ready to go! The course allows you the learner to learn at your own pace and convenience.

levacsafety.com

Legal Disclaimer

It is the employer's responsibility to ensure that each of their employees is properly trained. This program provides training of a general nature and may not include the hazards that are unique to your workplace. The intent of this training program is to outline expected industry standards. Employers must always ensure that their workers are properly trained according to the hazards and regulations specific to their workplace and job tasks. LEVAC HEALTH & SAFETY has made every attempt to ensure the accuracy and reliability of the training material that has been provided in this training program.

Updated: February 2022