1. Purpose of this policy

Given our objectives of supporting young people reach their potential through holistic support services, our reserves policy aims to ensure our work is protected from the risk of disruption at short notice due to lack of funds, whilst at the same time ensuring we do not retain income for longer than required.

This policy sets our need for the financial reserves.

Ignite Life put young people at the heart of what we do and work to support them to reach their potential and overcome adversity.

3. Reserves:

The charity Commission's CC19 guidance states: "There is no single level or even a range of reserves that is right for all charities. Any target set by trustees for the level of reserves to be held should reflect the particular circumstances of the individual charity. To do this, trustees need to know why the charity should hold reserves and, having identified those needs, the trustees should consider how much should be held to meet them.”

This policy sets out our free reserves, which are defined as unrestricted funds excluding fixed assets.

As part of effective financial management, we hold reserves to ensure we can manage:

- Financial impact of risk. There are potential risks we face, including the risk of an unforeseen drop in income or unbudgeted increases in expenditure

4. Financial impact of risk

To ensure that there is no significant disruption to our charitable activities, holding appropriate reserve will enable the organisation to respond to any unforeseen reduction in income (for example if we are unsuccessful with fundraising target amounts) or additional expenditure (for example if there is an unforeseen maintenance cost with our van).

We have based our projections for the appropriate amount of reserves we require on the basis of estimated running costs for 3 months. However, we operate on a model which makes no financial commitment until funding is secured, therefore, our risk is relatively low in terms of an unforeseen drop in income. Therefore, this policy outlines the exceptions allowed for going below our reserves if spending is required for unforeseen maintenance costs.

5. Commitments and long-term plans

The majority of Ignite Life’s projects and services are fundraised prior to making commitments.

Our commitment and long-term plans, which has potential financial risk:

Ignite Life Food Bank. Our shop rent and ongoing costs need to be reviewed and managed to ensure we are not in a financial risk where we would need to close.

Ongoing staff costs. We have one full time member of staff employed.

To manage the risk, our reserves include running costs to cover these commitments for three months.

6. Target range for reserves

The target range is set at approximately 5% above the minimum level of general funds expenditure.

7. Reserves calculation

Reserves breakdown	Breakdown (per month x 3)	Amount
--------------------	---------------------------	--------

Running costs for long term projects for 3 months (Food service)	£495 shop rent per month £60 fuel for van per month £10 wate bill per month £40 energy bill per month £50 additional costs per month	£1965
