Kensington-based law firm signs 14-strong property team led by top PCL specialist

NEWS 04 Mar, 2024

Nic Tiong & his team have joined Merali Beedle from Healys.

London law firm Merali Beedle has significantly ramped up its HNW resi offering, bringing in a 14-strong team from Healys.

Nic Tiong – a well-known name in international property law in Prime Central London – and his team have made the move en masse to the Kensington-based firm, founded by Adam Merali and Nico Beedle.

Tiong previously headed up Healys' Asia Pacific department, specialising in acting for clients from Thailand, China, Hong Kong, Singapore and Malaysia.

Joining him at Merali Beedle are Pritpal Manku, Carman Lee, Gabija Menkeviciute, Nohman Sheikh, Ryan Mak, Joycelyn Dyett, Brian Yip, Declan Lau, Grace Chan, Rachel Lau, Amy Scarlett, Aiste Vilcinskaite and Gintare Thurogood.

The newly-bolstered firm describes itself as “a market leader in Prime Central London property transactions”, and now counts a total of 52 fee earners; recent joiners have also arrived from Forsters, Brown Rudnick, Cripps and Fladgate. More additions from other top-tier UK firms are due to be announced in the coming weeks, said a statement.

Nic Tiong:

“My team and I have a proven track record in the prime central property market, and we are very excited to join forces with Merali Beedle and contribute to the firm’s continued success and growth.”

Adam Merali, Co-Founder at Merali Beedle:

“We are delighted to welcome Nic Tiong and his team to Merali Beedle. Their addition significantly enhances our transactional residential capabilities, particularly amongst foreign investors, and further strengthens our position as a premier destination for top legal talent.”

Nico Beedle, Co-Founder:

“We offer total flexibility to exceptional, entrepreneurial lawyers while providing them with all the support they need to thrive, including all the best elements of a traditional law firm. We prioritise the calibre and personality of lawyers we recruit over growth, and as a result continue to build a team which is elite and collegiate and is attracting top talent.”
