The premier in-person professional learning experience for DECA advisors, DECA AMPED at MBA Research Conclave: A Curriculum and Teaching Conference is the place to fuel your passion for teaching. It’s the perfect blend of workshops focused on business and industry trends, classroom instruction best practices and integrating DECA into the classroom.

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

LEARNING LABS
This will be the single best place to learn about a myriad of DECA topics, including competitive events, chapter development, project-based learning, school-based enterprises and more!

PRESENTERS WITH PROWESS
Presenters include senior-level Fortune 1,000 managers (typically VP and above), entrepreneurs with a unique story and leading educators, including successful classroom instructors.

NETWORKING
Connect with some of DECA’s most innovative chapter advisors beyond your association and create an informal cadre to collaborate with throughout the year!

THIS IS HOW WE DO DECA
Get the benefits of attending two conferences in one! Attendees can select DECA-focused workshops during the concurrent sessions, allowing you plenty of options to put together a professional development plan that meets your specific needs. Past topics have included:

- How DECA’s Competitive Events Connect to Curriculum
- DECA’s Member-First Mindset
- Project Management in the Classroom
- This is How We Engage Learners in the Learning Process
- Rock the DECA Exam and Role-play
- School-based Enterprise (SBE) Competition
- DECA’s Integrated Marketing Campaigns
- This Is How We Develop Chapter Strategy
