

TRAVELLERS REST HISTORIC HOUSE MUSEUM

Chaperone Policy

For

School Group Field Trips at Travellers Rest Historic House Museum

In regards to school groups, both Public & Private, as well as Title 1 schools, the following chaperone policy is now in effect. All teachers are free, and chaperones will pay the same price as the student rate ($8 for Public & Private Schools, and $5 for Title I schools). For school groups of 80 or more students, there is a one chaperone per ten student maximum. An example of this being if your school brought 120 students for a field trip at Travellers Rest, your school is entitled to only bring 12 chaperones in addition to the number of free teachers that are in attendance.

Chaperone Policy for

Homeschool Group Field Trips at Travellers Rest Historic House Museum

In regards to booking a field trip for a homeschool group, each homeschool family receives one free adult chaperone per family. If there is an extra adult per family, such as a grandparent who would also like to attend the program, the cost would be the same as the student rate of $8.00. Children 4 & under are free of charge, though if they would like to participate in the activity, the cost would be $2.00 per child.

Chaperone Policy for

Homeschool Days at Travellers Rest Historic House Museum

In regards to homeschool days at Travellers Rest that occur throughout the year, tickets for these events are available for sale on-line on the Travellers Rest website. The cost per parent chaperone for these limited events is the same as the student price of $8. Children 4 & under are free, though if they would like to participate in the activity, please add the $2.00 activity fee option to your total. Since tickets for these events are sold on-line, there is a small processing fee associated with each order for the convenience of purchasing on-line. This processing fee is not collected by Travellers Rest and this fee is unable to be refunded.
