PRACTICE INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

Sunderland Digital Careers

Listed below are some common questions that come up in interviews. Having pre-prepared answers to these questions will help you be more confident, less nervous and less flustered when they come up in an interview! It definitely makes a good impression if you've taken the time to time to prepare well; employers can see you care and are keen for the job. Use the questions below to help you plan and prepare for future interviews. You can even ask a friend to role play the interviewer!

Tell us about yourself.

What skills can you bring to the role?

What is your long term career goal?

Why have you applied for this role?

What are your strengths?

What is your biggest weakness?

Give an example of when you successfully worked in a team.

Give an example of when you used your problem solving skills to overcome an obstacle.

Give an example of when you successfully handled a difficult situation.

How would you manage working on multiple things each to their own deadline?

What do you like to do outside of work?
