"Our attendees were begging for more! Digby was the ideal presenter for our recent online conference 'Reform', which had an audience of 600 leaders of the recruitment and staffing industry. His presentation 'Changing the Game: Rewriting the rules in times of disruption' was the perfect addition to our program. Digby presented a live, engaging and energetic session focused on identifying the ways in which we can capture opportunity and redesign the way we will work in a post pandemic world. We will definitely use Digby again in the future and would recommend him to any industry looking to shake things up."

Charles Cameron, CEO RCSA

Digby will work with you to tailor each keynote according to your goals, so the key messages land and your people are inspired to step up and take new action well beyond the event.

This is your opportunity to create an environment that is both powerful and game-changing for you, your people and your organisation.

Digby offers three keynote presentations:

The Power of Connection
Make Change Happen
Changing The Game

The Power of Connection

Connection creates momentum. The quality of your connections is a fundamental ingredient for achieving professional and personal success. In a world where technology is challenging us to rethink what it means to be human, the power of connection has never been more relevant. We live and work in a world that relies on deep and diverse relationships to access information, get work done and generate new opportunities. And of course, relationships keep us sane, keep us grounded and keep us feeling good!

Come away from this session inspired and equipped to connect more deliberately with the people who matter.

Make Change Happen

You cannot not make an impact. Like it or not, you make an impact on the world. The question is: is it the impact you want to make?

These are interesting times. They are times of great uncertainty, but they are also times of great opportunity. In interesting times, those who step into them shape the future. We all have an opportunity to shape what happens next.

In this session, Digby will inspire your people to step up, lean in, and shape what happens next, rather than simply react to it.

Changing The Game

Are you under pressure to evolve? When our existing ways of operating aren't up to meeting the changing demands of our environment, initiatives stall, we get lots of busywork, and people suffer.

In rapidly changing times, we need a clever way to upgrade. It starts with the stories we tell ourselves about what's possible and what's not. When we change our stories, we change the game.

If you're ready to level up the stories about the game you're playing and how you play it, have Digby provide you with the inspiration and insights to help you take it to a whole new level.

*“Digby brings fresh thinking.
He’s kind of always kind of pushing the boundaries.
He really brings energy to a room.
And compassion and empathy.”*
