

JONATHAN PAPPIE

CEO at VX Global Inc.

Jonathan is a corporate financial consultant who has relationships with traditional financial institutions, equity sources and alternative finance.

His commentary has been published by the World Bank, he was appointed to the Reagan Congressional Commission by the Republican National Trust, and he has worked with the Small Business Administration Advocates Office and the SEC's Small Business Issuers Advisory Committee.

He has spoken at multiple events and seminars and has assisted in the creation of multiple business documents.

Family Office Club

Guest Speaker at Family Office Clubs for having Funded over 100 million in debt and equity.

ANGEL CAPITAL ASSOCIATION

Webinar host and featured Speaker:
De-Risking the Angel Investment Process.

- Provided invited commentary to the World Bank on international programs, banking and counter terrorism issues. Not an Endorsement.
- Provided consulting and support to California SBDC units and reported on same to the Office of the Entrepreneur in Residence. A Washington, DC based Chair. Not an Endorsement.
- Provided consulting and support to the SEC's Small Business Issuers Advisory committee, formed to make recommendations on small publicly traded issuers and whose input was part of vast regulatory reforms. Not an Endorsement.
- Member and Speaker at GCC 2000. Participant with Tech Cost Angels, Keiretsu Forum, MySpace incubator Slinghost – Guest Speaker

JONATHAN PAPPIE

CEO at VX Global Inc.

- Guest speaker at multiple investment forums. Former owner of Capital Pros Network. Sold to a third generation Indian Accounting firm.
- Former Vice President of a Broker Dealer. Former HMC Wells Fargo.
- Was an Investor Relations firm for Stan Lee's company POW! Entertainment.
- Worked for Michael Jay Solomon the former President of Warner Brothers.
- Wrote the business plan and acted as investment liaison for Kevin Costner's white energy (Battery) company.