Features

Wild Symbol substitutes any symbol in a line to complete a winning combination. Available during the bonus round only.

Lucky Spins. Four playable reels become available in case the wins in the main game reach the fourfold size of the bet (or higher).

Stacked Wild. Available only in the bonus round. Can appear on the 3rd central reel. Stacked wild helps to complete winning combinations by substituting other symbols on the reels, increasing chances of winning.

Replicate Stacked Wild. If stacked wilds appear on one of the 4 bonus reels, they are duplicated on the subsequent reels.

Bonus round

The bonus starts when the player has a win over x4 the size of the bet. The main game window switches to the 4-reel window: the mini version of the reels from the main game. The reels are distinguished by a set of symbols: in the bonus round, the wild symbol may appear on the reels, in comparison to the main game.

The infoline in the bonus round shows the Winnings and they are displayed continuously during the bonus round.

Autospins - the possible number of autospins varies. The number of auto spins is calculated according to the winnings and the bet (how many spins per bet can be made). By clicking the auto spins button - the reels start spinning.

Betting - The bet value (minimum) is equal to the bet from the main game x4. The balance remains unchanged throughout the round.

In the beginning of the bonus round the Winning field displays the win in the main game. During the entire bonus, this field displays the winnings throughout the round.

The Lucky bet field displays the bet (x4 from the main game). If the win amount allows - the bet can be increased by the player.

By clicking on Spin: the value of Winning field decreases by value of the bet ( in the Lucky bet field). The Winning field increases by the winning amount from the current spin. The number of available spins in the bonus round is limited by the amount in the winnings field and the maximum number of spins in the bonus round = 50.

When the limit is over (quantitative or monetary) or the Collect button is pushed - the player returns to the main game. The win from the winnings field (if any) is added to the Balance field.
