

Elephants Autumn 1 Homework Challenges

How many points can you get this half term?

Elephant class transition Complete some research on Elephants and present it in an exciting way. This could be a poster, fact file, leaflet, PPT or any way you like!						Well being! Complete an activity to help with your wellbeing. This could include baking, going on a family walk, learning a new skill or any other activity that makes you feel happy and healthy! 10 points for each activity completed.
40 points
Learn your spellings using Look Say Cover Write and Check or another spelling activity from the spelling sheet.			Enjoy at least 60 minutes of exercise a week. This could be running, cycling, balls games, dancing, skipping etc.			Using the list of common exception words in this book, how many words can you read in 1 minute? Can you beat your score the week after?
10 points for each week you do this			10 points for each week you do this.			10 points for each week you do this.
Read your reading book at home. Make sure the person you read it to records it in your reading record - each time you read during the week can be recorded.			Practise counting to 50. Can you write all your numbers to 15 in numerals and words?			Develop your fluency within the 4 operations by playing on Numbots/TTRS We are looking for highest earner and superstar collector.
10 points each time you read			10 points for each 15 numbers completed			10 points for each week you play
Bronze completed:			Silver completed:			Gold completed:			Platinum completed:		