If you click on a link to external sites or services from our First-Party Content, a third party may also transmit cookies to you. This Privacy Policy does not cover the use of cookies by any third parties, and we aren't responsible for their privacy policies and practices.

We strive to protect the privacy of your account and other Personal Information we hold in our records but cannot guarantee complete security. Unauthorized entry or use, hardware or software failure, and other factors may compromise the security of user information at any time.

Retention of Data

We retain Personal Information when we have an ongoing legitimate business or legal need to do so.

The period of retention will vary depending on the type of Personal Information involved but generally, this decision is shaped by the following criteria:

- If the data is necessary to provide our Service.
- If we have a legal or contractual need to retain the data.
- If Developers have the ability to access, edit and delete the data within their Metadome.ai account.
- If Developers would reasonably expect that we would retain the data until they remove it or until their Metadome.ai account is closed or terminated.

Where required by law, we will collect Personal Information only where we have your consent to do so. If you have questions or need further information concerning the legal basis on which we collect and use your Personal Information, please contact us.

OUR COOKIE POLICY

As a Developer or Visitor, information may automatically be collected using Cookies and similar technologies when you use our Services. Some of this information is similarly collected automatically through your browser or from your device. We may use this information to measure the performance of your email campaigns, to provide analytics information, enhance the effectiveness of our Service, and for other purposes described above.

"Cookies" are identifiers we transfer to your browser or device that allow us to recognize your browser or device and tell us how and when pages are visited and by how many people. You may be able to change the preferences on your browser or device to prevent or limit your device's acceptance of cookies, but this may prevent you from taking advantage of some of our Services.

We may use cookies for our Services for the following purposes:

Essential Website Cookies: These cookies are strictly necessary and help us verify your Account and device and determine when you're logged in, so we can make it easier for you to access the Services and provide the appropriate experiences and features.

Performance and Analytics: These cookies help us analyze how the Services are being accessed and used, and enable us to track the performance of the Services. For example, we use cookies to determine if you viewed a page or opened an email. This helps us provide you with information that you find interesting. All information these cookies collect is aggregated. Although important to us, these cookies are non-essential to the use of the Metadome.ai Site. However, without these cookies, certain functionality may become unavailable.

Advertising (Targeting) Cookies: These cookies are used to make advertising messages more relevant to you and your interests. They also perform functions like preventing the same ad from continuously reappearing, ensuring that ads are properly displayed, and in some cases selecting advertisements that are based on your interests. We and our third-party service providers may use these cookies to collect information about your browsing activities over time and across different websites.

Third-Party Tags/Links: We use and manage third-party tags/links on the website and associated First-Party Content. Third-party tags/links may take the form of pixels or tracking snippets. We use pixels to learn how you interact with our site pages and emails, and this information helps us and our ad partners provide you with a more tailored experience. We use tracking snippets to capture data from your browser, make requests to a third-party partner, or set cookies on your device to store data. For example, if you see a Metadome.ai ad on a social media platform and choose to use Metadome.ai, we may use a tag to reduce the number of Metadome.ai ads you see on that platform.

Opting Out: You have the right to decide whether to accept or reject cookies except for the essential cookies or which affect the functionality of the website. From your preferred browser, you can set or amend your web browser controls to accept or refuse cookies. If you choose to reject cookies, you may still use our Services although your access to some functionality and areas of First-Party Content may be restricted. As the means by which you can refuse cookies through your web browser controls vary from browser to browser, you should visit your browser's help menu for more information.

We do not control cookies from Third-Party Content except those we need to use to properly provide the Services, such as for performance. If you click on a link to a third-party website or service, a third party may also transmit cookies to you. This Privacy Policy does not cover the use of cookies by any third parties, and we aren't responsible for their privacy policies and practices. Please be aware that cookies placed by third parties may continue to track your activities online even after you have left our Services, and those third parties may not honor "Do Not Track" requests you have set using your browser or device.
