

How we can support your legal needs

Avant Law's specialist lawyers can help you with your personal, professional and business legal needs. Our services include:

Help with personal matters

-  Employment and workplace
employment contract and contractor agreement reviews and negotiation, minimum entitlements, sexual harassment, bullying and discrimination, complaints, workplace investigations, disciplinary action, dismissal, employment disputes and litigation
-  Property
conveyancing, transfers, property development and general property enquiries
-  Estate planning and probate advice and preparation of documentation including wills and powers of attorney, estate administration and probate, business succession, asset protection, family trusts, self managed super funds

Support with day-to-day operations

-  Commercial and corporate commercial contracting and enforcement, governance and corporate structuring, procurement, terms and conditions, business policies and procedures
-  Data protection and privacy privacy advice and policies, contractual data obligations, compliance, website terms and conditions
-  Employment and workplace
minimum entitlements (including award and enterprise agreement compliance), employment contracts, contractor agreements, workplace policies, complaint handling, managing performance and conduct, ill and injured workers, workplace investigations, dismissals and litigation
-  Property
commercial conveyancing, purchase and lease back, landlord and tenant leasing, all types of subleasing and licensing and property development
-  Intellectual property trademark registration

Confidence to resolve a conflict, issue or problem

-  Commercial and corporate regulatory disputes, contract enforcement, business and partnership disputes
 -  Data protection and privacy
cyber security and data breaches
 -  Employment and workplace performance and conduct management, complaint handling, workplace law compliance and underpayment of wages, workplace investigations, whistleblower disclosures, workplace disputes and litigation, including post-employment restraints
-

Establish, modify, buy or sell a practice

Buy/sell a practice

-  Commercial and corporate business structuring, sale and purchase of business, partnerships and joint ventures, shareholders' agreements, property leasing
-  Employment and workplace
insourcing and outsourcing, transfer of employment and industrial instruments, restructuring and redundancies
-  Property
all leasing including detailed lease reviews, subleasing and assignments

Establish a practice

-  Commercial and corporate
registration and incorporation, subletting, business structuring and partnerships, commercial contracting, trademark registration, compliance, policies and procedures, marketing and branding
 -  Data protection and privacy privacy advice, data sharing and policies, information security and record keeping
 -  Employment and workplace
minimum entitlements (including award and enterprise agreement compliance), employment contracts, contractor agreements, workplace policies, workplace training, performance and conduct management, record keeping, workplace surveillance and privacy, business protection including post-employment restraints
 -  Property
all leasing including detailed lease reviews, subleasing and assignments
-

About Avant Law

Avant Law is a doctor-focused law firm that provides a wide range of legal services to doctors and their practices. We aim to provide tailored legal support to doctors throughout all of life's opportunities and challenges.

Our deep understanding of doctors and their businesses allows us to provide the medical profession with expert legal advice and services they can trust.