

LAJC - INTERIM REPORT (Dec. 2022 – Feb 2023)

CONGRESO
JUDIO
LATINOAMERICANO

The Latin American Jewish Congress (LAJC)

brings together the Jewish communities of 18 countries in Latin America. Based in Buenos Aires, its office works to strengthen Jewish life in the region by building bridges of understanding with other faith communities, combating hate speech and creating lasting bonds with latin american societies, amongst other goals.

GLOBAL IMPACT

26

member organizations

18

Latin American countries

Activities report

November 2022 – February 2023

The Chilean community committed for gender equality

(Nov) The Chilean Jewish Community (CJCh) was the first one to formally sign our new Community Commitment for Gender Equality. More communities will be signing in during 2023.

Youth Hannukah Celebration in Buenos Aires

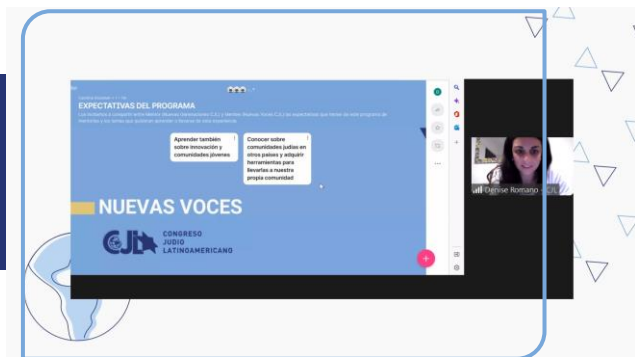

(Dec) 50 young leaders in the Buenos Aires community gathered to share a chill Hannukah celebration for our Next Generations program.

Chilean President Boric celebrated Hannukah

(Dec) We met for the first time with leftist Chilean President Gabriel Boric during the traditional Hannukah celebration at the Government Palace.

Activities report

New program for young students

(Dec) We launched “Nuevas voces”, our latest program aimed for teenagers and young middle and high school students in Chile and Uruguay,

More projects with OAS

(Dec) We visited OAS Secretary General Luis Almagro and committed to continue working together to prevent the terrorist threat in the region.

The youth in Uruguay met the National Defence Minister

(Dec) The participants of our New Generations program in Uruguay gathered with LAJC's Directives and the National Defence Minister, Javier García Duchini.

Activities report

15 Millions joined the #WeRemember campaign

(Jan) In the social media, on TV, radios, newspapers, in sports events and with interventions in the public space in several cities, Latin America remembered the Holocaust victims.

Our new poll showed that Jews feel safer each year in Latin America

(Feb) As every year, we conducted a poll together with Poliarquía consultores. Find all results in our website: <https://congresojudio.org/cil-data/>

A guide to manage hate speech in social media and journalism

(Feb) Together with the Anne Frank Center in Buenos Aires, Universities and Government agencies we published a guidebook for journalists and community managers to fight hate speech.

U.S. Senate in Washington D.C.

Santiago de Chile

Moroccan Embassy in Buenos Aires

Panama City

Follow our ideas, analysis and activities through our newsletters and podcast!

Sign up at: congresojudio.org

Visit us at: congresojudio.org