

“Peter Scott Lewis’ new CD creates orchestral music, joined by unique chamber music, blended in a careful manner. The first composition, Violin Concerto, is embellished with vitality and much calm. In contrast, Where The Heart Is Pure, a composition dedicated to Pablo Casals, the results are more rigorous and extroverted. In Delicate Sky, specially composed for this CD, the composer creates a climax with a simple and correct ascension. Lastly, Sun Music is a brief exercise for the piano, which is accentually dramatic.”
