Everyone Has a Divine Vocation

"Jesus has a specific task in life for each and every one of us. Each one of us is hand-picked, called by name by Jesus! There is no one among us who does not have a divine vocation! Some are called audibly by God, but the usual kind of call is internal, through the inner working of the Spirit." ~ Homily by Pope Saint John Paul II

PARISH ACTIVITIES

Interested In Becoming Catholic?

You may have been coming to Catholic Church for a long time with a family member or with a friend, but you had not thought about the possibility of becoming Catholic. Are you interested in possibly becoming Catholic? Would you consider that possibility now? Would you like to learn more about the Catholic Church to consider your decision? If you would like to know more about the RCIA, please call Father Jantz or Jackie Lampton at 205-663-3936.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

How's Lent going for everyone? I hope it's been a good one for every member of our parish, filled with experiences of God's presence and grace at each moment.

Since we're approaching the halfway mark of this holy season (where does time go?), I thought I would renew a couple special invitations that we have for deeper prayer, fasting, generosity, and gathering.

First, our parish Fish Fry and Stations of the Cross series is continuing over the coming Fridays. On March 17, we will hear from Fr. Eric Gami, a priest who recently came to Birmingham from Africa. He has many amazing stories of faith and the Cross from his years of ministry in his home country to share with us. On March 24, we will welcome Fr. Justin Ward, a good friend of mine who is the Vicar for Sacred Liturgy (in other words, the director of worship) for the diocese. He also brings a unique background and perspective to us. On March 31, our parish Youth Group will be performing a Living Stations of the Cross, which I'm very excited about, as well!

Second, if you haven't yet had a chance to get to Confession recently, this is a good time to do it. Our normal Confession times continue each Saturday at 4pm. We will also have a parish Penance Service on March 30, beginning at 6pm, with a number of priests present. I invite everyone to take the chance to experience God's grace more deeply through this great sacrament of mercy.

Third, our Lenten Cross and Rice Bowl activities are continuing. These are excellent ways to share the blessings God has given us with other people. Please consider getting involved, if you haven't already done so.

With renewed energy from these special observances, let's continue to strive forward along the way of the Cross this Lent. Sustained by the continual prayers of Blessed Mary Ever-Virgin and St. Thomas, we'll arrive together at the joys of the Resurrection at Easter, in just a few short weeks.

God bless,

PARISH ACTIVITIES

Ladies Wednesday Morning Bible Study

The Ladies Wednesday Morning Bible Study is at 10:00 AM in the St. Joseph's room. We will study "James: Pearls for Wise Living", in which Jeff Cavins shows how the teachings of James speak to those of us who feel torn between the competing demands of this world and our faith. Meant to help a fledgling Church live out its faith in the face of persecution and a worldview opposed to the gospel, the book of James will help you discover wisdom applicable to the present. All are invited to attend. If you have questions, call Debbie Drescher at 205-616-0920.

Wednesday Night Scripture Study

The Scripture Study group are on Wednesday's at 7:00 PM in the St. Joseph's room with "The Early Church: An Exciting Study of the Church's First Five Hundred Years" Discover the extraordinary story of the Church's beginnings—a time of courageous saints, brilliant philosophers, eloquent theologians, ruthless emperors, and heroic martyrs. Here you will get to know the people and events that shaped its first five hundred years. You will see how the Church Fathers boldly confronted early challenges to the Faith—challenges similar to the ones we face today. You will learn the stories behind the first ecumenical councils and the Roman persecutions and meet many of the men and women who gave their lives to defend the Faith. The heroic stories of the early leaders and martyrs of the Church will strengthen and affirm your own walk of faith. All are invited! Call Bill or Debbie at 205-664-2066 if you have any questions.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

¿Cómo va la Cuaresma para todos? Espero que haya sido bueno para cada miembro de nuestra parroquia, lleno de experiencias de la presencia y la gracia de Dios en cada momento.

Dado que nos acercamos a la mitad de esta temporada sagrada (¿adónde va el tiempo?), pensé en renovar un par de invitaciones especiales que tenemos para una oración más profunda, ayuno, generosidad y reunión.

Primero, nuestra serie parroquial de Pescado Frito y el Via Crucis continuará durante los próximos viernes. El 17 de marzo, escucharemos al Padre Eric Gami, un sacerdote que llegó recientemente a Birmingham desde África. Él tiene muchas historias asombrosas de fe y la Cruz de sus años de ministerio en su país de origen para compartir con nosotros. El 24 de marzo, daremos la bienvenida al Padre Justin Ward, un buen amigo mío que es nuestro Vicario de la Sagrada Liturgia (en otras palabras, el director de liturgia para la diócesis). También nos aporta una perspectiva únicos. El 31 de marzo, nuestro grupo de jóvenes de la parroquia realizará un Vía Crucis viviente, ¡que también me emociona mucho!

Segundo, si aún no has tenido la oportunidad de confesarte recientemente, este es un buen momento para hacerlo. Nuestro horario normal de confesiones continúa todos los sábados a las 4pm. Tendremos un Servicio Parroquial de Penitencia el 30 de marzo, a partir de las 6:00pm, con varios sacerdotes presentes. Y también, el 12, 19 y 26 de marzo, voy a permanecer en la Iglesia después de la Misa en español para confesiones (comenzando más o menos a las 1:45pm) Invito a todos a aprovechar la oportunidad de experimentar más profundamente la gracia de Dios a través de este gran sacramento de la misericordia.

Tercero, las actividades de la Cruz de Cuaresma y los Rice Bowl continúan. Estas son excelentes formas de compartir las bendiciones que Dios nos ha dado con otras personas. Considere participar, si aún no lo has hecho.

Con la energía renovada de estas celebraciones especiales, sigamos esforzándonos por el camino de la Cruz esta Cuaresma. Sostenidos por las oraciones continuas de la Beata María Siempre Virgen y de Santo Tomás, llegaremos juntos a las alegrías de la Resurrección en la Pascua, en tan solo unas pocas semanas.

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Jantz
