Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The 4th Sunday of Easter is traditionally known as Good Shepherd Sunday—for reasons that make perfect sense when you glance at the Gospel for today! Our readings give us the Lord's reflection on his identity as the Good Shepherd of his flock. We're continuing our reflection on the Apostles' Creed this week by considering the difference that our belief in Jesus makes. He's the one who guides and leads us!

In more recent times, the church has also marked this Sunday as the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Speaking from my own experience, I'd make two recommendations about how to promote this way of life that serves Christ's flock. First, in prayer, ask the Lord to give the men he's calling the graces needed to hear his calling and follow. It's never been an easy path, and you'd be surprised by how many obstacles often come in the way of following this call.

Second, when talking with the young men in your life, be sure to express the idea and importance of the priesthood every now and again. The shortage of priests isn't from a lack of people that God is calling, but a lack of an ability to hear that call and a shortage of social resources that make following it a joy. Hearing from other people—parents, relatives, mentors, and friends—that they're supported makes it much easier to follow.

Through the intercession of Mary, the Mother of God, and our patron St. Thomas, may each of us be strengthened in our life's vocation this week, and may our young people hear God's call to the path he has chosen for them.

God bless,
Fr. Jantz

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

El cuarto domingo de Pascua se conoce tradicionalmente como el Domingo del Buen Pastor, ¡por razones que tienen mucho sentido cuando echas un vistazo al Evangelio de hoy! Nuestras lecturas nos dan una reflexión del Señor sobre su identidad como Buen Pastor de su rebaño. Continuamos con la reflexión sobre el Credo de los Apóstoles esta semana al considerar la diferencia que hace nuestra creencia en Jesús. ¡Él nos guía y nos conduce!

En tiempos más recientes, la iglesia también ha marcado este domingo como el Día Mundial de Oración por las Vocaciones. Hablando desde mi propia experiencia, doy dos recomendaciones sobre cómo promover esta forma de vida que sirve al rebaño de Cristo. Primero, en oración, pídale al Señor que dé a los hombres llamados a esta vocación las gracias necesarias para escuchar y seguir. Nunca ha sido un camino fácil, y te sorprendería la cantidad de obstáculos que a menudo se interponen en el camino para seguir este llamado.

Segundo, cuando hablen con los jóvenes en su vida, asegúrenos de expresar la idea y la importancia del sacerdocio de vez en cuando. La escasez de sacerdotes no es por falta de hombres llamados, sino por falta de capacidad para escuchar esa llamada y escasez de recursos sociales que hacen que seguirla sea una alegría. Recibir apoyo de otras personas (padres, familiares, mentores y amigos) hace que sea mucho más fácil de seguir.

Por intercesión de María, la Madre de Dios, y de nuestro patrón Santo Tomás, que cada uno de nosotros sea fortalecido en la vocación de nuestra vida esta semana, y que nuestros jóvenes escuchen el llamado de Dios al camino que Él ha elegido para ellos.

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Jantz
