Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Last weekend's Gospel challenged us all to be good co-workers with God in his fields. "The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few." This week, I'd like to take the chance to talk about one of the most important areas of the work of evangelization: passing on our faith to the next generation.

I think we often just think of passing on the faith as something that happens naturally in our families. And although families obviously are the most important piece of the puzzle, evangelization doesn't just happen the way that an apple falls out of a tree. It's an effort: explaining things that we ourselves may take for granted; modeling Gospel behaviors and attitudes that we ourselves need to grow in; and recognizing the unique way that God speaks to every human heart.

In fact, teaching the Catholic faith to each generation is a lot like evangelizing a new culture. There are good things that need to be celebrated and built on. There are challenges that need to be addressed. And we ourselves have to be creative in engaging with each generation of kids: finding new ways to speak the old stories of the Catholic tradition.

That creativity is something that's very much on my mind this week as we begin Vacation Bible School. I've been amazed by all the talent and love and energy that our volunteers are bringing, and I look forward to a wonderful week of seeing God at work, as we teach our young parishioners what it means to love Jesus as part of our Catholic family.

Before I close, I'll add yet another word of invitation to any families who will be in town but who haven't yet signed up! Things get going at 9am on Monday, continuing throughout the week. I'm looking forward to seeing a great turn-out. Know of my prayers for our parish, our VBS volunteers, and especially our young people, through the intercession of Mary, the Mother of God, and our patron St. Thomas!

God bless,

Fr Jantz

St. Bernard in Cullman, AL is currently accepting applications for both day and boarding students for the '23/'24 school year! St. Bernard is a college preparatory school located in Cullman, Alabama on a beautiful piece of land occupied by both the school and the Benedictine monks who live in the monastery on site. It is also the site of the Ave Maria Grotto which is visited by thousands of guests each year. Our purpose: the education of the whole person: Body, Mind and Spirit – thus our Latin motto: Corpus • Mens • Spiritus. It is our aim that students acquire a love of what is true, good and beautiful, and to do so through a life of rigorously seeking to discover and appreciate those wonderful realities. We have day students as well as five and seven day boarders and we serve 7th-12th graders. ### Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

El Evangelio del fin de semana pasado nos desafió a ser buenos colaboradores con Dios en sus campos. “La cosecha es abundante, pero los trabajadores son pocos”. Esta semana, quisiera aprovechar la oportunidad para hablar sobre una de las áreas más importantes del trabajo de evangelización: transmitir nuestra fe a la próxima generación.

Creo que a menudo pensamos en transmitir la fe como algo que sucede naturalmente en nuestras familias. Y aunque las familias obviamente son el lugar más importante en este campo, la evangelización no sucede de la misma manera que una manzana cae de un árbol. Es siempre un esfuerzo: explicar cosas que nosotros mismos podemos dar por sentadas; modelar conductas y actitudes evangélicas en las que nosotros mismos necesitamos crecer; y reconocer la forma especial en que Dios habla a cada corazón humano.

De hecho, enseñar la fe católica a cada generación es muy similar a evangelizar una nueva cultura. Hay cosas buenas que necesitan ser celebradas y construidas. Hay desafíos que deben abordarse. Y nosotros mismos tenemos que ser creativos al relacionarnos con cada generación de niños: encontrar nuevas formas de hablar de las viejas historias de nuestra tradición.

Esa creatividad es algo que tengo muy en mente esta semana cuando comenzamos la Escuela Bíblica de Vacaciones (VBS). Me ha sorprendido todo el talento, el amor y la energía que aportan nuestros voluntarios, y espero con ansias una semana maravillosa de ver a Dios en acción, mientras enseñamos a nuestros jóvenes feligreses lo que significa amar a Jesús como parte de nuestra familia católica.

¡Antes de cerrar, agregaré otra palabra de invitación a las familias que estarán aquí pero que aún no se han inscrito! Las cosas van a comenzar a las 9 a.m. del lunes y continúan durante toda la semana. Espero ver una gran participación. ¡Estoy orando mucho por nuestra parroquia, nuestros voluntarios de VBS y especialmente nuestros jóvenes, por la intercesión de María, la Madre de Dios, y nuestro patrón Santo Tomás!

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Jantz
